

The 3 easy steps to finding help across Tennessee

1

Go to www.tennhelp.com.

If you know the agency's name you're looking for, you may use the keyword search. Otherwise, click where indicated to go to Step 2.

Search by category.

In Step 2, choose the need you have from the following list of categories:

- Adoption/foster care
- Child abuse
- Disabled persons
- Drug & Alcohol abuse
- HIV/AIDS
- Immigration issues
- Legal/governmental
- Money & employment
- Teen pregnancy/parenthood
- Basic needs
- Children's issues
- Domestic violence
- Health
- Homeless services
- Juvenile Delinquents
- Mental Health
- Rape & sexual abuse
- Youth activities

3

Search
by county or zip code.

Having chosen a category that best describes your need (or the need of the person you're trying to help), enter your county or your zip code to bring up a list of agencies in that area that can help. Each agency will appear with a separate listing complete with description, phone number, contact information, hours of operation, and even eligibility requirements.

www.tennhelp.com is a project of the Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services (TALS), working in conjunction with the National Association of Social Workers, Tennessee chapter, and the Tennessee Department of Children's Services.
