

RESOLUTION
West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc.
Board of Directors
In Support of
Enhanced Private Attorney Involvement with LSC-Funded Programs

Whereas, the Legal Services Corporation (LSC) and the programs it funds, including West Tennessee Legal Services (WTLS), have long recognized that the overarching values of private attorney involvement to LSC-funded programs are increased access, increased human and capital resources, and increased pro bono commitment; and

Whereas, at its April 2007 meeting, the Board of Directors of the Legal Services Corporation adopted Resolution 2007-003 supporting and encouraging private attorney involvement and urging governing boards of LSC-funded programs to collaborate with other organizations to effectively engage lawyers in pro bono representation and other services that benefit low-income persons; and

Whereas, the LSC Board of Directors resolution builds upon the following national LSC initiatives:

- The October 2005 LSC report, Documenting the Justice Gap in America: The Current Unmet Civil Legal Needs of Low-Income Americans, found that 50 percent of the potential clients requesting assistance from an LSC grantee were turned away for lack of resources on the part of the program;
- LSC Strategic Directions 2006-2010 calls upon LSC to increase public awareness of and support for legal services to low-income persons in order to respond appropriately to more of their legal needs;
- The LSC Performance Criteria consider, in evaluating a program's legal representation and other activities intended to benefit the low-income population in its service area, whether that program effectively integrates private attorneys into its work in order to supplement the amount and effectiveness of its representation and other services;
- The Provision for the Delivery of Legal Services Committee of the LSC Board of Directors focused its 2006 meetings on highlighting the potential, opportunities and challenges of private attorney involvement and on determining ways in which this critical resource can be used more effectively by LSC-funded programs as a means to help close the justice gap; and
- The unanimous adoption in January 2007 by the LSC Board of Directors unanimously adopted a strategic work plan entitled Action Plan for Private Attorney Involvement: Help Close the Justice Gap, Unleash the Power of Pro Bono, which highlights the benefits of engaging private attorneys to help represent clients of LSC-funded programs and describes ways in which the LSC Board and staff will work to expand private attorney involvement;
- The American Bar Association's Model Rule 6.1 and similar state bar rules note the ethical obligation of every attorney to provide pro bono legal assistance to those unable to afford legal assistance;

Whereas, in Tennessee:

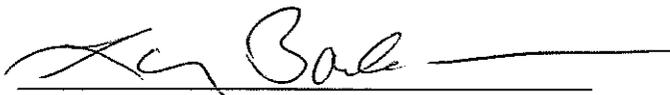

- The Tennessee Alliance for Legal Services has commissioned a study performed by the University of Tennessee School of Social Work Office of Research and Public Services and published the Report from the Statewide Comprehensive Legal Needs Survey for 2003 documenting the unmet civil legal needs of low income Tennesseans;
- Legal Aid programs, the Tennessee Bar Association and local Bar Associations in West Tennessee have a long history of successful collaboration on Pro Bono and Access to Justice activities;
- West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc. itself has a long history of successful attorney recruitment and involvement in Pro Bono programming and leadership;
- West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc. recognizes that much more must be done to close the “Justice Gap”;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Board of Directors of West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc., in an effort to help close the justice gap in Tennessee, supports and encourages private attorney involvement with West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc. and will endeavor to:

- Collaborate with other organizations and entities in Tennessee to develop and facilitate educational efforts that demonstrate the extent of the unmet civil legal need and encourage collective responsibility within by both public and private entities to help meet this unmet civil legal need;
- Collaborate with other organizations and entities in Tennessee to develop effective strategies for engaging lawyers in pro bono representation and other services that benefit low-income persons;
- Include in the collaborations organizations and entities such as state and local bar associations, access to justice entities, law firms and corporate law departments, law schools and clinics, government and military law offices, and state and federal courts;
- Develop strategies that encourage pro bono, including creative recruitment methods and delivery models, attorney practice and continuing legal education rules, and training, mentoring, support, and recognition of volunteers.

Be it Further Resolved that the Board of Directors of West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc. will promote, support and encourage private attorney involvement initiatives by publicizing and recognizing private attorney involvement in the work of West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc. and by collaborating with national, state and local organizations to create opportunities for such publicity and recognition.

Adopted by the Board of Directors of West Tennessee Legal Services, Inc. On July 30, 2007.

Larry Barbee, Board Chair
