

On this page, you will find information about what you can do if you have a legal problem. This can help you learn how to keep legal problems from happening. It can also tell you how to get help if you need it.

To see or hear information about your legal rights, click on the topics listed below. The recordings will play in a separate window when you click on them.

These recordings are for general information only. They do not give you legal advice about your particular legal problem. To get advice about a legal problem, you should talk to a lawyer. Because the law is always changing, check this site often for the most updated information.

VIDEO RECORDINGS

Watch a video about legal aid

AUDIO RECORDINGS

Domestic violence

What is domestic violence?

What can I do in an emergency?

How can I stay safe?

What is an order of protection?

What if I am not in the U.S. legally?

Local hotline numbers

SSI

What is SSI?

Do I have to be low-income?

What if I am not a U.S. citizen?

What if I came to the U.S. after 8/22/96?

What if I become a U.S. citizen?

Is there a time limit on my SSI benefits?

What if I don't understand letters I get from Social Security?

What can I do if my application for SSI is denied?

OTHER LEGAL RESOURCES IN VIETNAMESE

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

US Citizenship & Immigration Services

Your Right to a Free Interpreter

DOJ Office of Civil Rights

Environmental Protection Agency

Food Stamps

Social Security